TICKETS ON SALE MONDAY

From the Gala Committee:

The response from parents and alumni to our first issue of the Gala Update has been really amazing and we are so thankful for your support!

Tickets will be going on sale Monday, 5^o October and, as we expect a large demand for a limited number of places, we will be introducing a tiered sales structure to make sure everyone in the SJHS community has an opportunity to participate in this special event. For more details, see below.

Below we have a preview of some of the contributions and donations we have received since the last update. On the next page you will find very enticing articles on our Grand Prize.

Air Mauritius Your Holiday Begins in the Skies

The name Mauritius evokes images of a happy smiling people, of different ethnic communities, respectful of each other and living in perfect harmony, of a beautifully profuse garden suspended above crystal-clear waters lapping on splendid beaches and, last but not least, of enchanting lagoons. Today, this desirable destination can be easily reached via Air Mauritius, an airline synonymous with impeccable quality.

In the past 40 years, the national airline of Mauritius has expanded its routes, offering more flights and destinations than ever before, thus increasing its passenger turn-out.

Air Mauritius offers non-stop flights from Italy to the island, departing from Milano-Malpensa and there are also daily direct flights from Paris.

The success story of Air Mauritius can be attributed to three factors: the astounding variety and flexibility of its destinations and flights, the refined quality of on-board service and the very high level of safety of its planes.

This blend makes the pleasure of flying Air Mauritius a pleasurable and unforgettable experience. All our passengers are special.....because with Air Mauritius, your holiday begins the moment you set foot on board.

Le Touessrok Pinnacle of Tropical Elegance

Gleaming pearl, pinnacle of tropical elegance, sensual and romantic with touches of modern refinement, the 5-star luxury hotel, Le Touessrok, member of The Leading Hotels of The World, offers the relaxed atmosphere typical of a Mediterranean village but with the added bonus of a Mauritian feel.

The rooms, spacious and planned on different levels, are enriched with precious African wood, porcelain tiles, and decorative panels reflecting a traditional Creole design.

The bathrooms in the Junior Suites have unusual oval bathtubs which provide ample space for two and face the sea.

Six restaurants and bars, each one displaying its unique character and a refined state-of-the-art design full of originality, provide exquisite food and varied menus. All provide breathtaking views.

In a secluded spot at the resort, the Givenchy Spa offers an oasis of pure relax with both avant-garde and traditional treatments that allow you to drift away from time and space.

The 18-hole golf course the hotel has created on l'Île aux Cerfs embraces Le Touessrok's unique style and satisfies even the most exacting golfers.

If you are in search of white fine-sand beaches, the sapphire waters of the Indian Ocean, secluded corners, starlit nights and days caressed by a gentle warm breeze, you will find these timeless and unique characteristics awaiting you at Le Touessrok.
